

Napa Valley Sanctuary

The Villagio Inn & Spa marries classic style with world-class luxury.

FROM THE SCULPTURAL FRAGMENTS, TO THE OLIVE TREES, TO THE GURGLING CHANEL OF COOL WATER THAT RUNS LIKE A ROMAN AQUEDUCT THE LENGTH ON THE PROPERTY, IT IS THE MEDITERRANEAN ACCENTS THAT SET YOUNTVILLE'S VILLAGIO INN & SPA APART. Add classic elements like mosaics and the grand columns and fabulous furnishings that look like they belong in the world's great palazzo's, you'll quickly conclude that there's no resort in the Napa Valley that can compete with the luxury and exquisite Old World charm of the Villagio Inn & Spa.

Like all things of great elegance there are layers of complexity that elevate the guest experience. Starting with the staff. The men and women are a highly trained, efficient, and inexhaustibly friendly group that go above and beyond when it comes to accommodating your requests and can be relied on to make your stay a memorable one.

A trip to the Wine Country generally includes visits to the region's many notable wineries. Before setting out enjoy a healthy, delicious breakfast from their signature Champagne breakfast buffet. With an ample and exceptional selection of healthy options, baked bread, pastries and fresh juices you'll be ready for whatever the day's plans call for.

Not in the mood for wine tasting? There's plenty to enjoy on and off the the property. Fitness aficionados can hit the gym, staffed with personal trainers, get in a few sets at the tennis facility or play a few friendly rounds of Bocce with your fellow guests. Should you opt to take it easy then hang out poolside with a good book and soak up the same sunshine that bathes the world famous vines. Or enjoy some quiet time in your beautifully appointed suite that features a wood burning fireplace, a private balcony or garden patio, a whirlpool jetted bathtub and complimentary bottle of fine wine.

There's one must do activity at Spa Villagio and that is spending a few hours, or the whole day, at the extraordinary Villagio Inn & Spa. Heralded as one of the Napa Valley's premier spas the facility is truly the lap of luxury. Inside you'll find sixteen treatment rooms and five intimate, private spa suites appointed with indoor and outdoor oversized sunken infinity tubs, fireplaces, steam showers, wet bars and televisions with Bose sound systems.

Opposite: Entrance to the Spa Villagio, an intimate relaxed retreat with extraordinary services and exceptional amenities. Top: The elegantly appointed lobby sets the tone for a memorable visit. All guests receive a glass of bubbly upon arrival. Bottom: The well-designed, spacious king guest rooms offer serenely comfortable cocooning. All rooms have plush robes, L'Occitane bath amenities and a complimentary bottle of wine.

The latest and perennial favorite treatments and therapies are on the menu at Spa Villagio. For the body there are purifying mud baths, fruity peels and D-age treatments. Or chose from the well curated offerings of facial treatments to recondition, cleanse, and firm. A special treatment to book is the signature Season Kur. a ritual satiating the body's craving for minerals and nutrients. It is performed in the outdoor Kur "Cave." and showcases natural resources such as thermal mineral water, purifying salts, mud, essential oils and herbs Whatever treatment you choose, you will leave refreshed and balanced.

Spa Villagio offers more than just its regenerating services. The facility itself is a work of art. Built to resemble a villa and furnished with antiques of European origin, the interior melds the best of Continental touches with soothing natural elements. Stone, hand-hewn wood, and traditionally forged metal accents soothe the senses and combine to create an intimacy and quiet. Gentle, cascading water adds to the relaxing atmosphere. No other spa in the valley so perfectly achieves this genial balance of calming sensuality and beauty.

Another Villagio Inn & Spa bonus is its location. Set in the middle of Yountville, facing gorgeous vineyards, you have one of the the regions most charming towns right outside your door. The compact, valley-floor town is perfect for walking or taking a bike tour. Sample the many dining and wine tasting options available the length of Washington Street, the town's main thoroughfare, that include Michelin starred restaurants, bistros, cafes, along with shopping and galleries and plenty of public art. On your stroll be sure to visit the Villagio Inn & Spa's sister property, the Vintage Inn.

The Vintage Inn offers the same amenities and services but with a French country twist. The rooms here have all been recently remodeled and promise to elevate the mood of even the most world-weary traveler.

Naturally, the Villagio Inn & Spa is home to exquisite banquet facilities making it perfect for your next event, be it a family gathering, or a wedding. The Villagio Inn & Spa is also ideally suited to accommodate business related events in the Vintage Estate Conference Center and is conveniently accessible to local, regional and international business travelers year-round. The Estate is only an hour's drive by car, limo or shuttle from all of northern California's major airports; a twenty minute drive from Napa County Airport if arriving by private jet or helicopter. ☎

Top: Spend contemplative time in one of Spa Villagio's five spa suites, then enjoy the myriad of amenities such as steam, sauna and therapeutic baths. Complimentary teas and fruit infusions are served throughout the day. Bottom: The Villagio Inn & Spa's beautifully landscaped fountain-dotted grounds, vineyard accented garden setting and cobblestone pathways evoke the charm and warmth of a Tuscan countryside village.
